Tarry Lodge is an Italian trattoria designed to provide a casual environment for the gathering of friends, family, or business associates.

Located in a historic building on the corner of Charles Street & Franklin Street in Westport, steps from the Westport Train Station, Tarry Lodge boasts award-winning service and cuisine by Michelin acclaimed Chef, Andy Nusser.

Tarry Lodge offers an impressive wine list and menu that includes house-made pasta, fritti, and meats cooked over a grill.

The pizza bar is wrapped around a steel-clad Mugnaini wood-burning oven, with pizzaiolos tossing dough and baking pizzas to order.

LARGE GROUP DINING

We offer large group dining options for parties of 13-36 guests.

Groups are seated at multiple long tables next to each other in their own area of the restaurant.

Large group dining menus are the same as private dining; please inquire for pricing.

Groups of 12 guests or fewer may choose to order à la carte at no additional cost.

PRIVATE DINING

Although there are no separate private rooms at Tarry Lodge in Westport, the restaurant is a petite venue that is the perfect size to host a group of 35-80 for a seated meal.

For groups of 50 or less there is plenty of room for a standing cocktail reception followed by a seated meal.

The restaurant is the perfect place to host holiday parties, celebratory dinners, or business meetings.
